Team	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	R	H	E
Cerritos	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0			2
Western	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0			2

Summary: The Dons played Western to a 2-2 tie in 8 innings. The Dons displayed good pitching and defense in this game. Outstanding defensive plays were made by outfielders Marquis Kidd and Keenan Parra (only 2nd time playing outfield). Matt Villalba also made a key throw out of a baserunner in the 8th inning. Hitting, however, needs to improve with many missed scoring opportunities.

Cerritos	0	0	0	1	0	0	0				1	2	1
Laguna Beach	1	2	1	0	1	0	X				5	8	0

Summary: The Dons were ready to play, but it came up against a team that played a little better and lost 5-1. Rajean Daily started and pitched a complete game in the loss. Except for Kevin Vaca's 2 hits there was a definite lack of hitting. The Laguna Beach pitchers struck out 12 don batters.

Orange	0	6	0	0	0	0	1				7	11	2
Cerritos	0	0	0	0	0	2	2				4	8	4

Summary: The Dons gave up 6 runs in the 2nd inning and lost to Orange 7-4. Other than the 2nd inning starting pitcher Chris Price was outstanding. The fielding was as sharp as game 1 but we still played pretty good. Matt Kamiyama and Rajean Daily led the hitting attack with 3 hits each. Rajean also had 2 RBI's and 2 stolen bases. The rest of the Dons need to come alive in their hitting. We also need to get the timely hits and keep the other team from scoring after 2 are out.

Date –Mar. 8, 2010

Team	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	R	H	E
Savanna	2	1	4	0	0	1	2				10	13	3
Cerritos	1	0	0	0	4	0	0				5	5	5

Summary: The Dons played their worst game of the tournament. We made errors, missed cutoffs, and various other little things we did wrong. We regressed a little in this game. However we were still in the game after a 4 run rally in the 5th, 7-5, but we couldn't sustain the momentum. We're still not hitting in the clutch.

Team	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	R	H	E
Cerritos	0	0	6	1	0	2	5				14	16	2
Schurr	0	0	2	0	0	2	0				4	5	5

Summary: The Dons led by Kevin Vaca's 3 hits (2 doubles), 5 RBI's, & 1 1/3 innings of perfect relief, in their 14-4 win over Schurr. Rajean Daily pitched a strong 5 2/3 innings. Their hitting finally came alive as the Dons got 16 hits. Let's hope this is what they needed to become the team they are capable of becoming.

Date –Mar. 12, 2010

Western	0	0	0	1	0	2	0				3	6	0
Cerritos	1	0	0	0	0	0	0				1	4	2

Summary: The bats were silent for the Dons as they were defeated by Western 3-1. Chris Price pitched a great game and deserved a better outcome. Chris struck out 7 and walked only 3 in his complete game (the 2nd for the Dons this year). The Dons were stellar defensively even though they made two errors. They have to stop hitting pop ups and striking out. We have to make the defense work to get us out.
